New Zealand Human Rights

Universal Periodic Review

New Zealand's 3rd Universal Periodic Review in the United Nations Human Rights Council will take place in early 2019. The New Zealand Government will submit a national report in October 2018 covering a broad range of current human rights issues in New Zealand. We would like our communities to be involved in this process and to share your views on human rights issues that are important for you.

We invite you to participate in a consultation session to share your views on current human rights issues in New Zealand. Sessions will be held in the following locations:

WELLINGTON// Wednesday 14 February (10am – 12pm)

Rutherford House, RHLT2, 33 Bunny Street

AUCKLAND// Monday 19 February (10am – 12pm)
